Why were the priests the continued focus of God's attention? What was at stake?

As New Covenant priests where has God given you a place of influence? Have you ever even thought of yourself as a priest?

What does it mean to "set your heart" to do something? What does that look like?

How can you show more honor to the Lord? How are you influencing others to do the same?

How are listening and the heart connected, and ultimately necessary to give honor to God?

Has God ever needed to speak to you in a stern, strong voice? What was it about?

Reread Malachi 2:4-6. Does this description of Levi reflect the Christian life you are living? In what areas are you struggling? What do you think it means that Levi "stood in awe of my name." What was the result of Levi's reverence for the Lord? V2:6
