ALL YOU CAN EAT

2 Peter 1:12-21

September 20, 2020

As you eat of the Word of God...

1. Remember those who _____ the meal.
2. Remember the _____ paid for the meal.
3. Remember the _____ value.

Peter made every effort to remind his readers to live out a Christ-like life. Peter was also an eyewitness to the glorified Christ and he reminds us that the Bible is God's inspired word!

1. Why did Peter want to remind his readers (and us) of the qualities listed in 2 Peter 1:5-7 if they already knew them (2 Peter 1:12; 3:1, 17; 1 John 2:21)? What does this verse tell us about our need for consistent fellowship in the Christian life (Hebrews 10:24-25)?
2. What did Peter expect was going to happen to him (2 Peter 1:13-14; 2 Corinthians 5:1; 2 Timothy 4:6)? Who told him this was going to happen (John 21:18-19)? How did this expectation lead him to act? Do you view your remaining time on Earth with the same sense of urgency?
3. What kind of spiritual legacy did Peter hope to leave (2 Peter 1:15)? What kind of spiritual legacy would you like to leave? How can God use you to impact the generations that follow (2 Timothy 2:2; Psalm 71:18)? Who can you build into today in order to fulfill that calling?
4. Do people today view the Bible as a cleverly devised myth (2 Peter 1:16)? Why are Christ's power and coming significant (Matthew 24:27, 30-31)? What credibility did Peter have to back up his words and teaching (cf. 1 John 1:1-2)?
